Athlete of the Year to Be Named at Banquet Today

El Camino College will hold its annual spring Athletic Awards banquet tonight at 7 in the college Campus Center. Highlight of the evening will be the presentation of the Athlete of the Year and the Most Outstanding Performance awards by John W. Morrow, coordinator of athletics.

Athletic groups which will be represented will be the baseball, basketball, golf, gymnastics, swimming, track and wrestling teams, and the Women's Athletic Association. Intramural awards and other special citations will be made by the coaches. Coaches of spring sports will present trophies to the outstanding men on their squads. These will be given by the coach to the man who has contributed the most to his team. Serving as masters of ceremonies will be Alan McCulloch, commissioner of athletics. McCulloch will also present all of the many intramural awards. Topping this list will be the basketball and softball team championships; also included in the intramural program are table tennis, bowling, wrestling, tennis and two-man volleyball.

Other top awards in the intramural program will be made to the Man of the Year, to the person showing the best sportsmanship and to the most improved intramural athlete.

Scout Fishing Contest Held

Cub Pack 775 sponsored by 223rd Street School, held a fishing contest at Alondra Park May 17. Larry Bender won a fishing rod as first prize for catching the most fish.

Edison PTA Holds Installation

Installation night at Edison PTA meeting. Installing officer Mrs. Joe Reinhardt, past president of the Lancaster PTA, installed Mrs. Doyle Henderson as president, Mrs. William Cassida, first vice president; Mrs. Robert Kandler, second vice president; Lester Foster, third vice president; Mrs. Bert Richardson, recording secretary; Pat McManus, auditor; Mrs. Carl Miller, historian.

Other items on the program include an inspirational by Mrs. Charles Henderson and the pledge to the flag led by the Campfire Girls. Miss Chapman's and Mrs. Danielson's kindergarten rooms presented a skit on safety and the Edison orchestra under the direction of Mrs. Doris Crosler, played several numbers.

At the youth program of 223rd Street School May 13, the pack was represented by Dens 1 and 8. Den 1 put on a skit, "The Litterbugs and the Firebugs." Den 8 sang the Cub Scout song and presented the "living circle" with the Cubs' promise. Den Chief Roland Goldsmith of Troop 315 helped in the presentation.

Exhibits of the Cub work were on display. Have Display Troop 755 represented Cecil Slane Ceramics at the Scoutorama May 24 at the Coliseum. Their booth contained ceramic figures and the boys demonstrated the way in which they were made. They held a circus at the Normandie playgrounds last Thursday night, gave awards and two graduation certificates. Next committee meeting will be held June 4 at the home of Sam Iurrl, 1346 W. 220th st. Future events and the summer program will be discussed.
